Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The High Schools of New York City: A Hand-Book of Procedure and Personnel It has been the custom of the High School Teachers Association of New York City since its organization in 1900 to publish occasional bulletins dealing with high school activities and problems, and in 1914 under the direction of President William T. Morrey, the Association issued a comprehensive Directory of the High Schools of New York City. During the war, however, publication was discontinued except for a few circulars issued during the salary campaigns. In the meantime many important developments affecting the High Schools took place. In 1917 the bankrupt pension system was replaced by a new plan based upon sound actuarial computations, the Education Law of the state was revised, and many changes were made in school organization. In 1918 the gradual reduction of salaries, which had been going on for nearly twenty years through depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar, reached such a point that collapse of the whole system seemed imminent, compelling a readjustment of salary schedules in...
