America Star Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New.

Paperback. 234 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.6in. x 0.7in.

Rama grew up feeling unloved by her mother and at the young age of six accidentally burned down their entire four story apartment building. Rama and her family had no choice but to live in a homeless shelter and the closest one with available space for a mother and three children was located in the basement of a church. The church was two hours away from the familiar streets of Brooklyn in a small suburban town called Kingston. By the time Rama is thirteen, she has already tried to commit suicide, been a victim of bullying and has been diagnosed with bipolar disorder. Rama is a poet and sees the poetry in life, she understands that poetry is not always sweet and kind, its not always about love and it doesnt always rhyme. Poetry helps her refocus her mind when she starts to feel out of control but she decides to take her psychiatrist advice and gives skateboarding a try. One day when Rama and her friends are skating at a skate park known for throwing after hour raves, her world changes completely. She meets...
