

Letters from J: The Expanded Life of a Coma Patient (Paperback)

By Berniece Mead

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jay Mead has been in a coma since August 20, 1994. Up until then, he was a professional actor and stunt man. During a performance at Knott s Berry Farm, an amusement park in Southern California, he sustained a head injury resulting in the coma. In October 1997, his parents began receiving an amazing series of letters from Jay, through a medium that had never met him. In these letters, Jay revealed startling information about himself and his dual life - in both this and another dimension. According to J, as he asked to be known, what he experienced was no accident, but rather a graduation, right on time, to cutting-edge service work, straddling two worlds and being influential in both. J s messages, with their inspiring wisdom, will touch your heart and redefine your sense of who is disabled or not. Letters from J - The Expanded Life of a Coma Patient is the story of Jay Mead and 17 incredible letters written to his family. It is a story of karma and grief, of spiritual transformation,...
