The Dental Register is a monthly journal of dentistry devoted to covering the latest information in dental practice, procedures, and administration, written for individuals interested in the profession. Edited by J. Taft, D.D.S. and with associate editors Will H. Whitslar, D.D.S. and N. S. Hoff, D.D.S., this publication was printed by the Ohio Dental Depot. A compendium of information, this volume boasts a wide range of topics to educate and intrigue even the most versed dentists. This publication contains over one hundred articles for the reader s enjoyment on topics that span a great array of dental interests including dental groups and associations; dental law; dental practices including separators, gold as a filling material and hygiene tips; and highlighting various dental practices around the world, with essays on dentistry in Brazil, quackery in China, and dental law in Holland. A special section of the register examines a variety of issues pertaining to the study of dentistry and dental schools including a detailed comparison of different programs at a variety of dental colleges across the United States....
